CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

November 27, 2006.

P.C.

At the hearing of the Review Petition, the Review Petitioner has drawn the attention of the Court to the first sentence in para 8 of the order which begins with the words “In these circumstances”. The Review Petitioner states that these words would give an impression to the Divisional Joint Registrar, to whom the proceedings have been remanded, that this Court has found substance in the grievance of the Co-operative Society on merits. There is absolutely no merit in the submission. The last sentence in para 8 of the order of the Court clearly specifies that no opinion has been expressed by the Court on the merits of the question as to whether sufficient cause was shown by the Co-operative Society within the meaning of Section 23(1) of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies' Act, 1960. No case for review is made out. The Petition is dismissed.
